GIVING Thanks

This Thanksgiving, whether you're surrounded by loved ones or enjoying quiet moments alone, remember how blessed you are by God's grace and the caring support of Our Mother of Good Counsel Parish community.

Take a moment to reflect on or ask others about the blessings that come to mind. Even during difficult times, we can find blessings and gratitude in our lives if we open our hearts and embrace them.

On behalf of Fr. Greg and the staff of Our Mother of Good Counsel, we send our heartfelt wishes to you and your family for a joyful and blessed Thanksgiving!

W tym Dniu Dziękczynienia, niezależnie od tego, czy spędzasz go w gronie najbliższych, czy w spokojnej ciszy własnego domu, pamiętajmy o wielkich darach, jakimi obdarza nas Bóg oraz o życzliwym wsparciu naszej parafialnej wspólnoty Matki Bożej Dobrej Rady. Zachęcamy, aby zatrzymać się na chwilę i pomyśleć o błogosławieństwach, które otrzymujemy każdego dnia. Nawet w trudnych momentach możemy odnaleźć wdzięczność i dobro, jeśli tylko otworzymy na nie nasze serca.

W imieniu ks. Grzegorza oraz całego personelu parafii Matki Bożej Dobrej Rady składamy Tobie i Twoim bliskim najserdeczniejsze życzenia radosnego, spokojnego i obfitego w Boże błogosławieństwo Dnia Dziękczynienia!

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

We celebrate the feast of Christ The King this weekend. This feast is celebrated on the last Sunday of the liturgical year. Next weekend we begin a new liturgical year, the Season of Advent.

Christ the King is a feast that reminds us that Jesus is the true King of Peace. He came "to reconcile to himself all things" (Col 1:20), and came "not to be served but to serve" (Mt 20:28)

During this upcoming Advent Season and beyond, let us think of how we can serve others, just as Jesus did and how we can bring peace to those around us.

COAT DRIVE

For the month of November, we will be collecting new and gently used coats. The donations bins will be in the Narthex.

These donations will benefit Big Brothers Big Sisters of Joliet.

KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe serves as the "crown" of the liturgical year.

Celebrated on the final Sunday before Advent begins, it is the climax of the Church's calendar, proclaiming that Jesus Christ is the eternal Lord over all creation, time, and history. By having this feast at the end of the liturgical year, the Church illustrates the goal of our spiritual journey is ultimately the return and reign of Christ.

JUBILEE YEAR PETITIONS

On November 21-23 our Holy Father will be remembering in prayer those who minister in our Parish Choirs.

This ministry brings a joyful spirit to our worship celebrations. It also enables the sharing of the gift of music that has been given to many people. Thanking your parish music ministers through prayers and personal greetings would be most appropriate. 'When we sing, we pray twice' and thus we owe gratitude to all those who enable our opportunity to live out this saying

Dear Friends,

Today the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) issued a powerful and unified "Special Message" on immigration. Deeply rooted in our Gospel tradition of loving our neighbor, this letter affirms our solidarity with all our brothers and sisters as it expresses our concerns, opposition, and hopes with clarity and conviction. It is grounded in the Church's enduring commitment to the Catholic social teaching of human dignity and a call for meaningful immigration reform.

I encourage each of you to take the time to read it, pray with it, and share it with others. Let it be a source of reflection in your homes, parishes, and communities. I hope its message of compassion and justice will influence our thoughts, words, and actions. May it also inspire the work we do together as a Church.

Through the intercession of Mary, Help of Christians, may God's light bring peace, justice, and healing to all who need it most.

And may God bless you always.

As I remain—

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks
Bishop of Joliet

U.S. Bishops Issue a “Special Message” on Immigration

BALTIMORE, NOVEMBER 12, 2025— As the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) gathered for their Fall Plenary Assembly in Baltimore, the bishops issued a Special Message addressing their concern for the evolving situation impacting immigrants in the United States. It marked the first time in twelve years the USCCB invoked this particularly urgent way of speaking as a body of bishops. The last one issued in 2013 was in response to the federal government’s contraceptive mandate.

Under the regulations pertaining to statements and publications of the Conference, a “Special Message” may only be issued at plenary assemblies, and they are statements which the President of the Conference, the Administrative Committee, or the general membership consider to be appropriate in view of the circumstances at the time. To show the consensus of the body, a Special Message must receive two-thirds of the Conference members present and voting at the plenary in order to pass. In a vote of 216 votes in favor, 5 votes against, and 3 abstentions, the bishops overwhelmingly approved the Special Message, with sustained applause of the body following the vote. The full text of the bishops’ Special Pastoral Message follows:

As pastors, we the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care.

We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation’s immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church’s teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God’s compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger (Zechariah 7:10). In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake (2 Corinthians 8:9), we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust (Luke 10:30–37), and we see the One who is found in the least of these (Matthew 25). The Church’s concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord’s command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34).

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:26). You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

*As disciples of the Lord, we remain
men and women of hope,
and hope does not disappoint! (cf.
Romans 5:5)*

May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ.

St. Joseph's Corner

"In the beginning..."

Scripture opens twice with those words. In Genesis, we encounter a beginning that leads to a fall—a beginning that does not endure. In the Gospel according to St. John, we behold a beginning that cannot fall, the beginning that endures forever. Together, Moses and John reveal a mystery at the heart of the universe—a mystery that defines our very existence.

"In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth."

Light breaks into darkness as order emerges from chaos. Man is formed, crowned with dignity, and entrusted with the garden. Created as image-bearers, set apart from the whole of creation, and yet still unable to grasp the fullness of life gifted from the Source, humanity falters. In the frailty of freedom, man's fall becomes inevitable.

But John draws us back even further—beyond the garden, beyond the first breath of Adam, beyond the dawn of creation itself. He takes us back to the Person who stands behind creation, back to the King who orders the cosmos.

Before Eden was planted, the Logos already reigned. Before there was light, there was the Word—"and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

The tragedy of Genesis is that the first kingly son, Adam, rejects the Word. He chooses autonomy over communion, mastery over obedience. Under the weight of his rebellion, the ordered world fractures into hiddenness, exile, and shame.

So, John announces the beginning again—not the beginning of creation, but the beginning of re-creation: "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us."

The King enters His fallen world not with thunder and fire, but in silence—hidden in a manger, hidden in Nazareth, hidden under the roof of a humble carpenter named Joseph.

Christ the King enters this fractured world to reclaim it. What Adam forfeited by reaching for a kingdom apart from God, Christ restores through perfect surrender. The gates of the garden are opened again—not by conquest, but by the outpouring of sacrificial love on the Cross, where the faithful Son offers Himself for Adam and for all who have turned away.

Dear brothers, the Feast of Christ the King confronts us with this question: Will we repeat Adam's fall, or follow Christ's obedience?

Every man faces the same temptation Adam faced—autonomy, self-rule, control. But every man is offered the same grace Christ reveals—sonship, obedience, and trust. If we want our homes to flourish, if we want peace in our families, and if we desire strength rooted in truth rather than illusion, then we must pick up our cross and choose the new beginning Christ offers.

Let Christ the King reign where Adam fell—in your thoughts, in your work, and in your home.

—Sebastian Abbinanti (Parish Pastoral Council Member)

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

Baptism: Baptisms are scheduled on the second Sunday of each month. Polish Baptisms are at 1:00 p.m., and English Baptisms are at 1:30 p.m. Please contact the Faith Formation Office before booking your venue for the celebration. Parents must be registered with our parish. Both sponsors must be over 16 years old, with at least one being a practicing Catholic.

Marriage: The bride and groom should be active members of our parish. The couple should contact the Faith Formation Office at least six months in advance to schedule their marriage, allowing for adequate preparation. Schedule the church date for your marriage before securing your venue.

Funerals: The family of the deceased will coordinate with the chosen funeral home to make the arrangements. The funeral home will then contact the Faith Formation Office at Our Mother of Good Counsel (OMGC) to notify us about the upcoming funeral Mass. We (OMGC) will get in touch with the family and work together to organize the funeral liturgy.

Eucharist for the Homebound and Hospitalized: If you are unable to attend Mass please contact the Parish Office for the Sacraments of the Eucharist. Our Homebound ministry would be happy to assist you.

Anointing of the Sick & Hospital Visits: Please contact the Parish Office if your loved one requires an anointing. Please do not wait until death is imminent to request anointing, as it may take some time to find a priest for the sacrament.

Religious Education: We offer religious education classes for grades 1-8. Call the Faith Formation Office for more information. Classes meet Wednesday, 6:00-7:30PM September through March.

Newcomers: Welcome to our Parish! Please stop in the Parish Office or visit our website for a Parishioner registration form. We are so happy to have you.

Prayer Request Line: Submit your intention to omgcpayers@gmail.com, and our prayer warriors will discreetly pray for you intention. If you would like to join the prayer warriors, send omgcpayers@gmail.com an email asking to be added.
